

2006 Mexican Elections: A Challenge for Democracy

Saturday, March 11, 2006

Kresge Auditorium, Stanford University

Free and open to the public

Event in Spanish with simultaneous English translation

For more information: www.stanford.edu/group/mexicanos

8:45 a.m. Welcome

Larry Diamond, Senior Fellow at the Hoover Institution and Coordinator of the Democracy Program at the CDDRL

9:00 a.m. Keynote Address

“Civic Initiatives in the 2006 Presidential Election”

Enrique Krauze, Political Analyst, Historian, and Writer

Roundtables

10:30 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

“The Media in the 2006 Electoral Process”

Roy Campos, Consulta Mitofsky

Javier Corral, PAN Senator

Marco Gómez, IFE

Leopoldo Gómez, Televisa

Moderator

Leo Zuckermann, CIDE

2:00 p.m.-3:30 p.m.

“The Electoral Agenda of the Political Parties”

Saúl Escobar, PRD

Rosario Green, PRI

Héctor Larios, PAN

Moderator

Alberto Diaz-Cayeros, Stanford University