Not the same old story.

Not in journalism, and not at the John S. Knight Fellowships at Stanford

A year to make a difference for journalism... Think of it. A year to study and research in the company of other accomplished journalists at one of the top academic institutions in the world. A year to develop your out-of-the-box ideas and create something of benefit — to yourself and the profession. The John S. Knight Journalism Fellowships at Stanford offers a year to broaden your understanding of a changing profession while working on real-world issues. Come help us tackle the challenges and explore the opportunities of 21st century journalism. Our goal? To improve the quality of information reaching the public through the news media: print, broadcast and cyberspace.

Come to Stanford and renew yourself,
and journalism, too.
